

SIMCHAT SHMUEL

BY RABBI SAM SHOR

Program Director, OU Israel Center

Parshat Lech Lecha begins with the instruction to Avram to leave behind all that is familiar to him and go to the Land that Hashem will show him. The expression Lech Lecha-You shall go, you-seems at first glance to be redundant.

Rashi, in a well known comment explains this seeming redundancy- lech lecha- you shall go for yourself- lehanatcha uletovatcha -for your own satisfaction and good. It is there that you will become a great nation, here you will not merit to have children, and only there will your true nature become revealed in the world.

In explaining Rashi's words, the Tiferet Shlomo, the Rebbe of Radomsk zy'a posits: Seemingly Avraham already had wealth and material success, so what exactly is Rashi pointing out for us? What does it mean that he must leave behind all that is familiar to him in order to go to the Land, which will ultimately be for his own benefit and good?

The Rebbe explains that even beyond having his own biological children which he will merit only upon entering Eretz Yisrael, Avraham Avinu's nature and essence is to do chesed, to show compassion and consideration for others. In his own birth-place, surrounded by the culture of Avoda Zara, his ability to spread his legacy of kindness and love, would be limited by the push back of the idolatrous ways of those around him. However, upon entering the Land of Israel, his legacy of kindness, and ability to connect with and transform others would begin to blossom and spread.

Rabbi Yaakov Friedman, zy'a, the Rebbe of Hosiyyatin, made aliya to Tel Aviv in the late 1930's and lived through the formative years of the establishment of the State of Israel, during the turbulent times of both the days leading up to the Declaration of Independence, the subsequent war, and the earliest days of our fledgling state. The Rebbe became a powerful advocate for the importance and significance of the return of the Jewish People to the Land that was promised to Avraham Avinu. In a powerful teaching about Teshuva, and how the Torah promises that the Jewish people will always have the opportunity to renew our connection to Hashem and his Torah, the Rebbe points to our Rashi as well. The Rebbe wrote that the promised renewal and transformation will not come from within America, from England, or from any other country(the Rebbe's words!) Rather, just as Hashem promised to Avraham Avinu, that when he will come to this Land he will indeed become a progenitor of a great nation, that he will indeed prosper and be able to truly grow to his full potential and impact the entire world, so too the Jewish People, as we return to Eretz Yisrael will also begin to make manifest our full potential and impact the entire world.

Baruch Hashem, today more than seventy years since the Rebbe first uttered these words, we see our small State as a global leader in many fields. Indeed the Start-up Nation continues to impact, protect, and transform the entire world.

Yehi Ratzon, that we may continue to merit to lead the entire world to an era of unity, tranquility and spiritual clarity, bimheira yameinu, amen. ■

בימים קשים אלו אנו מתפללים לחזרתם של אהובינו ויקירינו ומשתתפים בצער אובדן אחינו ואחיותינו. אנחנו פה תומכים בחיילי צבא הגנה לישראל ובתקווה לימים שקטים יותר. ביחד אנו ננצח את הרוע הזה. תשמרו על עצמכם ואנחנו פה עומדים לשרותכם במה שנוכל.

In these difficult days, we mourn the lives we lost and pray for the return of our loved ones. We support the IDF and hope for more peaceful times. Together we'll defeat this evil. Stay safe and we are here to help in any way we can.
